SPEECH OF SENATOR DOLITTLE.

Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, delivered a speech in the City Hall, Milwaukee, on the evening of the 28th ult. The following is a report of his remarks:—

Mr. President and Fellow Citizens:—For some months past I have been absent from my native land. I have been removed from the exciting scenes of political strife. I have hardly read the political newspapers of my own country, but during these months I have had leisure to reflect much upon the situation of our beloved country. From all the reflection and thought which I could bring to bear upon it, I have been confirmed in the belief, which was forced upon me more than two years ago, namely, that the policy which was then proposed by Mr. Lincoln immediately upon the surrender of the armies of the Rebellion, to recognize at once the States of the South, to have them restored to all their constitutional rights, and to their representation in the Union, was the only just, the only wise, the only constitutional policy (Applause.) From that time forward I have struggled to carry that policy into effect. I believed then, and I am now more than ever firm in the opinion, that if, two years ago, immediately upon the surrender of the armies of the Rebellion, the States of the South had been recognized with their constitutional rights, and admitted to their representation in the Union, under the policy of Mr. Lincoln, all the difficulties which now surround us, both financial and political, would have passed away. (Applause.) I believe that if, two years ago, that policy had been fairly adopted, the bonds of the Government of the United States this day, at six per cent., would command a premium in gold in every money centre of the world. (Applause) I will state this fact—which I hope no one present will forget—I have met no intelligent man in Europe who has not expressed the same opinion, that if our States of the South had been admitted to representation in the Union, that the whole world could see that we were one people, one nation, with all the States represented and taking part in our legislation, our six per cent. bonds would not only be at par, but would command a premium in gold. Why not? Why should not the American securities at six per cent. command a high premium in gold, when the English three per cents. command ninety-three per cent. in gold? No earthly reason can be given, except that these States are apparently divided and dissevered; that the States of the South are kept out of the Union by this radical policy. I charge this home to the leaders of that party. The whole responsibility rests upon that radical policy, which, trampling the Constitution under its feet, violating their plighted faith and the policy of Mr. Lincoln, the often avowed policy which elected him, refused to allow to ten States of the Union all right to representation. (Applause.) Fellow citizens, it is not my purpose to detain you for any length of time. I only wish to express in a few sentences two or three thoughts. The great, all absorbing idea which underlies radicalism, is precisely the same idea which underlaid secession. (Applause.) What is that idea? Let us not deceive ourselves. Ideas rule the world. What was the idea which led the South into Rebellion? It was this. The Constitution has no authority over the Southern States against their will; they have a right to withdraw from the authority of the Constitution at pleasure, and therefore, after the passage of their ordinances of secession, the Constitution was practically dead in the States of the South. The people of the South went to war to enforce that idea. What did we do? We maintained precisely the opposite idea, to wit:—That the Constitution has supreme authority over the States of the South as well as of the North, and that the States of the South should be made to acknowledge the supremacy of the Constitution. To maintain that idea we called two millions of men to the field. We poured out our treasure and our blood like water. To maintain that idea we created this debt of three thousand millions of dollars. To maintain that idea five hundred thousand of our sons went down to battle and to death. By the blessing of God we were victorious in maintaining that idea of the supremacy of the Constitution over the States of the South when we, at length, after a long and terrible war of four years, compelled the South to surrender to that idea; when we compelled the people of those States who made their appeal to the God of battles to decide the question between us, to surrender the controversy; when the South yielded and acknowledged the Constitution to be supreme and that the flag of the United States was the flag to which they owed allegiance; then up rise Thaddeus Stevens, Charles Sumner, Benjamin Wade, and other radicals of the North, to proclaim anew the idea of the secessionists, viz., the Constitution is no longer the supreme law of the land in the States of the South; that we do not hold the States of the South by constitutional authority; that we hold them by the sword and the sword alone; not under the Constitution, but outside the Constitution, by a power which is above the Constitution. That is the idea of radicalism. It is not only akin to, but it is identical with the idea of secession. It is the essence of rebellion against the Constitution of the United States. Whether it is asserted by Jefferson Davis at the South or by Thaddeus Stevens at the North, it is a new rebellion against the Government of the United States. (Applause.) We have by force of arms put down the Rebellion of the Secessionists at the South. We do not expect to be compelled to put down this new rebellion at the North by force of arms. (Applause.) We expect to put it down by moral power alone, by argument, by reason, by persuasion, as we have done in Connecticut, in California, in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, by the power of the ballot box. (Great applause.) Mr. President, I will not detain you any longer. I trust that Americans will rise in the majesty of their strength, and by their moral power, by calm reason, by earnest and truthful argument, and by their votes proclaim again the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States in the States of the South, not only in spite of the Secessionists in the South, but in spite of the radical anarchists and revolutionists in the North. (Great applause.) I can very well see by the election returns that a change has come over the spirit of the country. When I come to Racine now, the place where I have lived for fifteen years, I am not met by an infuriated mob who would prevent me from speaking to the people of my own town. (Great applause.) A mighty change is being wrought. (Cheers and great applause.) If I attend a meeting in the neighboring county of Kenosha, to proclaim these doctrines there, in which I believe the very existence of constitutional liberty to us and to our children is involved, there will be no one to interrupt and insult me, to prevent their utterance, or to interfere with me in any manner. (Applause.) Why this change? It is simply the work of time. Men are beginning to reflect, to reason, to think for themselves. The excitement and passions and prejudices which war has engendered are passing away, and cool, dispassionate judgment is once more asserting its legitimate sway.

I thank God for what I already see, and I think we shall have occasion to be yet more thankful for what is yet to come. (Great and prolonged applause.)

ELEGANT EXTRACTS.—We have published a telegraphic despatch giving an account of a conversation which a correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial had held with the Hon. Ben. Wade, setting forth the views of that personage in relation to the Ohio election, and other topics growing out of it. Since then the letter of the correspondent has appeared, detailing in full the political ideas of Mr. Wade, as expressed in his own choice language. The following extracts are specimens of the style of the man who now fills the second office in the republic. Referring to the Ohio election, the correspondent approaches him with:

"Well, old gentleman, how do you like it as far as you've got?" To which Mr. Wade replies: "It's the fate of war. We're d—d badly whipped; but it can't be helped. We must get ready for another round at 'em."

Of the defeat of the suffrage amendment he says:

I'll be for keeping it up until we do win; for by the Eternal God they can't beat us all the time on a question like that! * * * I won't back a d—d inch."

Referring to weak-kneed radicals: "Hell's full of such radicals as we have now. There'll be the damnedest crawfishing you ever saw from this time forward." In reply to a question whether Mr. Lincoln left little or no property behind, he said:

"It's a d—d lie. Mrs. Lincoln was very well off, and didn't need even what she got ($25,000) from Congress. She took a hundred boxes of something or other—I don't know what—away with her, and the commissioner of public buildings swore there were fifteen other boxes that she wanted to carry off, and he had to interfere to prevent her. At any rate, she cleaned out the White House. I didn't know but she was going to run a big hotel with all she carried off."

His opinion of Stevens's confiscation bill: "A piece of d—d foolery." In regard to impeachment: "What the devil has an election in Ohio to do with the matter?" He would like to know whether Grant was "for Johnson or for Congress, or what the devil he was for." When he (Wade) endeavored to elicit from Grant his views upon political subjects, he turned the conversation to horses! "Conservative devils" is the complimentary phrase Mr. Wade applies to those who cannot "jump forward" as far as himself. "We'll give them (the Southern States) a republican form of government in spite of the devil and all his angels, including Andy Johnson." We suggest to the party of progress, among their other side issues, to put a prohibitory plank in their platform against profanity, for their fine "moral ideas" lose much of their weight when set forth by their leading official functionaries with so many "damns" and "devils."—*Balt. ### AFRICANS MAKING STATE CONSTITUTIONS.

The World is noting how the negro is beginning to do his work as Constitution-tinker down in Alabama. The State Convention there was temporarily organized by the selection of the editor of a Radical newspaper, Griffin, late from Chicago, Illinois, as presiding officer. Peck, of Alabama, was then elected permanent President. The World says:

"When this was done, a motion was carried that the members register their names. Of the African delegates, one half could not write their names, but made their mark. This being over, the selection of Secretary took place. Barbour, late agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, was one candidate, and Patrick another. The vote was taken by count, and when the first African was called, he insisted upon answering "here." The clerk repeated his name only to get a louder response, "here." Here was a hitch, for here was not a candidate. At length the President explained to the Africans that they were not at a plantation muster, answering at roll call, but were voting either for Barbour or Patrick, and the Convention started again. An African was then made Assistant Secretary. Some white members then attempted to get a white doorkeeper. This led to a vote by count, and the African was successful. Then came a proposition that the members take the iron-clad oath provided by Congress, which all Federal officers in the North and lawyers in the Federal courts are required to subscribe. This made trouble, for many Radical delegates were, during the war, radical rebels. The difficulty, however, was overcome by the fortunate suggestion that, as General Pope had approved the selection of, and called the delegates, the oath was dispensed. Quite a cute dodge! This ended the first day's performance!

Later in the proceeding General Pope sent to the Convention a proposition to provide at once for a sort of provisional government, to remain in existence till Congress acts on the one to be matured (?) by the Convention. Under the Pope plan, all existing State offices are declared vacated; a provisional governor is to be appointed by the Convention, and he is to select all needed State officials. This proposition was referred to the proper committee. A motion to lay it on the table was defeated, but it will ultimately be adopted, the Africans and white Radicals approving it This much for a new constitution for Alabama!

TOWER OF BABEL.—A writer in Blackwood's magazine thus describes the present appearance of the place where languages got mixed. "After a ride of nine miles, we were at the foot of the Bier Nimrod, our horses' feet trampling on the remains of brick which showed here and there through the accumulated dust and rubbish of ages. Before our eyes uprose a great mound of earth, barren and bare. This was Bier Nimrod, the ruins of the tower of Babel, by which the first builders of the earth had vainly hoped to scale high heaven. Here, also, it was that Nebuchadnezzar built, for brick, bearing his name, have been found in the ruins. At the top of the mound a great mass of brick work pierces the accumulated soil. With your fingers you can touch the very bricks—large, square shaped and massive—that were "thoroughly" burned, the very mortar, the slime, now hard as granite, handled more than four thousand years ago by earth's impious people. From the summit of the mound, far away over the plain, we could see glistening, brilliant as a star, the gilded dome of a mosque, that caught and reflected the bright rays of a morning sun. This glittering speck was the tomb of the holy Ali. To pray before this at some period of his life; to kiss the sacred dust of the earth around there at some time or other; to bend his heavy body and count his beads is the constant desire of every devout Mahommedan."

A SHREWD WAY OF CATCHING THIEVES.—The Paris papers reveal a new style of theft by which jewelers are losers. The thief enters the shop of a dealer in diamonds and pearls, and asks to see some small unset stones. He is well dressed and wears colored spectacles. The stones are laid before him, spread on a paper. Being very near-sighted, as his glasses prove, he is obliged to bring his eyes so near to the gems that he can pick them up with the tip of his tongue, and he keeps them in his mouth until out of the shop. If he fears detection, which seldom occurs, he swallows his treasure—whence the slang name "swallow it raw" given to this class by the thieves' fraternity. One of them was caught the other day. The diamond merchant, put upon his guard, said he had no small stones, but would have a large supply the next day. A policeman was in waiting; the diamonds were laid out upon papers previously impregnated with an extremely bitter drug, which when the thief put his tongue to them acted so violently on his sense of taste that he instantly rejected what he had just taken. The policeman appeared and the thief was taken in the act.

REPENTANCE.—Nothing is more misunderstood than the nature of repentance. Too many imagine it is merely to cry for mercy; or, at most, only to be sorry for what is past. But true repentance is a thorough change of mind, which always produces a corresponding change of conduct.

RECEIPTS FOR FITS.

Though no doctor, I have by me some excellent prescriptions, and shall charge you nothing for them; you cannot grumble at the price. Weare most of us subjected to fits; I am visited with them myself, and I dare say you are all. Now, then for prescriptions:

For a fit of passion, walk in the open air, you may speak to the wind without hurting any one, or proclaiming yourself to be a simpleton.

For a fit of idleness, count the tickings of a clock. Do this for one hour, and you will be glad to pull off your coat the next time and work like a horse.

For a fit of extravagance or folly, go to the work house, or speak with the ragged and wretched inmates of a jail, and you will be convinced.

"Who maketh his bed of briar and thorn,
Must be content to lie forlorn."

For a fit of ambition, go into a churchyard and read the gravestones. They will tell you the end of ambition. The grave will soon be your chamber-bed, the earth your pillow, corruption your father, and the worm your mother and sister.

For a fit of repining look about for the blind, and visit the bed ridden and afflicted and deranged, and they will make you ashamed of complaining of your lighter afflictions.

LEATHER BREECHES IN THE OLDEN TIME.—How changed are the fashions from the olden time! In former days, remarks a contemporary, working men and mechanics and country people universally appeared in their leather breeches and apron, with baize, red or green vests. Working boys did the same. How changed, we say, the times! An apprentice has now a suit of broadcloth, in cut and style of the latest fashion, with cap, hat and boots to agree. But in the primitive times, all these things were strikingly different. A young man of eighteen was genteelly and handsomely dressed in a pair of buckskin breeches, black or "buff" every week for his Sunday appearance at church. His legs were covered to the knees with blue yarn knit stockings and his feet protected by coarse leather shoes, well greased and surmounted by brass buckles.—Remember, too, that he wore a checked or speckled shirt all the week, but a snow white on the Sabbath, and this he carefully took off when he came home, folded up and laid away for the next Sunday services. After long wear the leather trouserloons became greasy, and growing older, were only flexible when worn, for there were no stoves, furnaces or heaters to warm their garments at.

PREDESTINATION.—A Missouri paper contains the following which will pass without much urging:

"Do you believe in predestination?" said a captain of a Mississippi steamer to a Calvinistic clergyman who happened to be traveling with him.

"Of course I do."

"And you also believe that what is to be will be?"

"Certainly."

"Well, I'm glad to hear it."

"Why?"

"Because I intend to pass that boat ahead in fifteen minutes, if there be any virtue in pine knots and loaded safety valves. So don't be alarmed, for if the bilers ain't to burst, they won't."

Here the divine commenced putting on his hat, and began to look like backing out, which the captain seemingly observed.

"I thought you believed in predestination, and what is to be will be?"

"So I do, but I prefer being a little nearer the stern when it takes place."

ANALYSIS OF FOOD.—It is stated that a hungry man who sits down before a pound of beefstake, tender, juicy, and an inch thick, and eats it, will find upon analysis that sixty-five per cent. of his steak was water; that eighteen per cent. will go to give him an aldermanic fleshness; and that fourteen per cent. is assigned to warm him, and make him feel comfortable on a cold day. Of the flesh-forming ingredients, according to Dr. Playfair, every one, on an average, requires ninety-two pounds annually to keep up a proper bodily condition. If not obtained from steaks, then it must be secured from something else. Cheese is a great flesh-former (30 per cent.) and, taken with beer, speedily conceals all traces of unsightly bones. Two ounces of flesh formers per diem will keep a man alive if he is not forced to labor, but hard labor requires six, or the body will run short of starch and sugar, and go behind-hand in health and strength. In 100 parts of wheat there are 10 pounds of flesh, but there is nearly double the amount in the same quantity of oat meal.

NO DEFORMITY IN HEAVEN.—Dr. Holland has the following reflections on seeing a little lame boy who was singing a cheerful song: "It is pleasant to say to him and all the brotherhood of ugliness and lameness, that there is every reason to believe that there are no such things in heaven as one-legged or club-footed souls—no such thing as an ugly or mis-shaped soul—no such thing as a blind or deaf soul—no such thing as a soul with tainted blood in its veins; and out of these imperfect bodies will spring spirits of consummate perfection and angelic beauty—a beauty chastened and enriched by the humiliations that were visited upon the earthly habitations."

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

If all the Southern States are admitted, the full electoral vote will be 347; absolute majority required, 159.

Revolutions never go backward, and the present one will progress steadily, bringing in under the Conservative banner other States, and confirming by increased majorities those that have already cut adrift from Radical rule.

No one, it is to be presumed, will deny that the following States are absolutely and hopelessly lost to the Radicals for the next Presidential contest, viz; California, Connecticut, Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, and Ohio. They poll 119 votes, leaving 40 to insure an absolute majority. With present prospects, can there be any doubt but that they can be readily obtained? Indiana and Illinois give twenty-nine votes. Will not both of these States wheel into line? When we see in one year a change of 45,000 in the Radical majority in Massachusetts, may we not even hope for that fossil State, and still more so for New Hampshire and Maine? Then there are several of the Northwestern States which undoubtedly will cut loose from Radical rule within the coming year, and it will be impossible, with all their hardihood of action and defiance of the Constitution, for the extremists to negroize all the Southern States, so that some of them will undoubtedly vote for the Conservative candidate. Though it will take some time to reform the S nate, the Radical rule will be destroyed in the next House, and all power for further mischief taken from them. Let us then be be thankful for the bright skies above. We have an abiding conviction that the Republic is saved.—National Intelligencer.

A THRILLING SCENE.—About half-past eight o'clock yesterday morning, the dwelling of William Sautage, on Wight street, between Campau avenue and Chene street, took fire during the absence of all the members of the family except the young children, who were locked inside while the mother went to a neighbor's. The flames spread rapidly, and before any effort could be made to check their progress, the entire building was wrapped in a sheet of fire. The agonized mother rushed into the burning building with the intention of saving her babes, but the smoke and hot air stifled her and she was compelled to abandon the undertaking. It seemed as though the children must surely perish, so fiercely did the destructive element rage; the flames leaping and curling above the doomed building like a mass of writhing, angry serpents. The mother was in despair, and her screams for help were truly pitiful. Finally a young man, named William Plass, determined to undertake the rescue of the children. Wrapping a wet blanket about his person, he sprang into the building, and groping his way to the kitchen, where they were known to be, he brought them forth in safety. Five minutes' delay would in all human probability have sealed their fates, but happily they were uninjured, although their clothing was considerably scorched. The grateful mother could find no words to express her joy to the heroic preserver of her children.—Detroit Free Press.

HOW NAPOLEON TRAVELS.—The special train in which the Emperor Napoleon went with his suite from Paris to Saltzburg, is described as exceeding in comfort and elegance anything of the kind that has hitherto been known. The train consisting of nine carriages, communicated with each other by tastefully decorated bridges. In the middle was a handsome sitting room, furnished with chairs, ottomans, sofas, mirrors, pictures, clocks and chandelier. On one side of the room was the dining-room, and on the other the Emperor's study. In the middle of the dining-room there was a table, capable of being extended or contracted at pleasure, with easy chairs placed parallel to the sides of the carriage.—The Emperor's study contained an elegant writing table, a clock in the style of the renascence, a thermometer, a barometer, and a telegraphic communication was established with the apartments of the various Court officials traveling with His Majesty. Next to the study was the bed room of the Emperor and Empress, with two beds placed transversely against the sides of the carriages. The dressing rooms were attached to the bed room. The remaining carriages consisted of a kitchen, a wine cellar, and the apartments of the Emperor's suite. There was also a conservatory filled with the choicest flowers.

CAN ANY ONE TELL?—Can any one tell why men who cannot pay small bills, can always find money to buy liquor, and treat when happening among their friends?

Can any one tell how young men who dodge the washer woman and are always behind with their landlord, can play billiards night and day, and are always ready for a game of poker or seven-up?

Can any one tell how men live and support their families who have no income and do not work, while others who are industrious and constantly employed, half starve?

Can any one tell how it is that a man who is too poor to pay for a newspaper, is able to pay a dollar or two a day for tobacco, whisky or cigars?

—Ill-natured people say Charles Sumner is to change the title of his lecture from "Are we a nation?" to "Am I a husband?"

—A number of Pennsylvanians are buying farms in Tennessee, especially in the neighborhood of Chattanooga.

—General Grant has issued new regulations for the examination of applicants for appointment in the Regular Army.

INDEED!

The Delaware Republican says of the Radical party:

"No other party recorded in history, can boast of having rendered such services to the civilized world."

That is true. "No other party recorded in history can boast of" having exhibited in so great degree as the Radical party, the workings of hatred, malice and revenge. In this its services to the "civilized world" are unparallelled. They will stand out on the pages of history as a perpetual warning to the nations, against fanatics, enthusiasts and hypocrites. When the Briton reads of the banishment of Vallandigham, the butchering of Bollmeyer and the imprisonment of Wall and Olds and thousands of other citizens, for opinion's sake, he will forget the bloody history of the Tower, cease to brood over the untimely fate of Raleigh and think no more of that stain left upon the escutcheon of England by the blood of Mary, Queen of Scots; but, leaving the dead of a dark age to bury their dead, he will look around him to mark those men who in this day of enlightenment, would fix a darker stigma upon the name of his country, by treading in the footsteps of American Radicalism. When he reads of a bloody war made, avowedly, to bring back into the Federal Union a people in revolt, and finds that after that war was ended by the rebellious people laying down their arms in good faith, those people were made to bear the burdens of government, without being permitted to participate in the making, or execution of its laws, he may think of Ireland, and see and appreciate the wrongs of that down-trodden satrapy of Britain. When his attention is called to the five thousand millions of debt, weighing upon the shoulders of the American people, increased daily by the expenses of an immense standing army, he may console himself that Great Britain at last has found company in her misery of national indebtedness. When he finds that in America the property of the middle and poorer classes is taxed to support the government, whilst the bonds of the moneyed aristocracy, are exempt from taxation, he will find a parallel in his own country, and will not wonder if the bread riots of Manchester some day have their counterpart this side of the Atlantic. And thus our British cousin is taught to look out for that fanaticism which would level only that it may rise. As for France, when her savans shall know the excesses of Radicalism in the United States, they will forget that their country ever had a Robespierre, or that Jacobin fury once dragged the bones of the dead Bourbons from their graves and threw them in a ditch. Russia, when she hears of ten States blotted from the map of the American Union, will think better of the dismemberment of Poland, and Austria, as she learns that ten millions of whites are made serfs of four millions of blacks, will bear, with sovereign complacency, the reproach of Hungarian slavery. In this wise, has the Radical party rendered great services to liberty and civilization. Indeed, "no other party recorded in history, can boast of having rendered such services to the civilized world."

NOW, THEN!

On Tuesday night last, the speakers at the Radical meeting announced that the Republican party is committed to Negro Suffrage. What more do Republicans want to convince them that their party is determined to make the blacks their political equals? Hereafter, you, too, Mr. Republican, must acknowledge yourself in favor of Negro Suffrage or you must leave your party. Now what will you do? Will you swallow all you have said against this hateful doctrine, or will you show yourself a man and cut loose from the miserable leaders who expect to pull you hither and thither like a mere wooden puppet?

A SCENE.

Locus in quo—Court House; time, Tuesday night, during progress of Radical meeting; John Cessna loquitur: "The Copperheads rejoiced once before in 1862 and brought out their rusty cannon and"—. Indignant Copperhead breaks in with, "Yes, and John Cessna made a speech at that Copperhead jubilee!" A ghastly paleness overspread the countenance of John and he sputtered and spat like a tallow candle half extinguished with a drop of water.

THE ANTI-PAPAL WAR.

The effort of Garibaldi to overthrow the temporal power of the Pope, has proved a failure. Garibaldi has been defeated with heavy loss, by the Papal troops, himself made a prisoner, whilst his too sons are fugitives.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

Pursuant to a call of the Democratic County Committee, a Mass Meeting of the Democracy of Bedford county, was held at the Court House, on Monday evening last. At an early hour the Court Room was packed with enthusiastic Democrats, and at seven o'clock the meeting was organized, on motion of B. F. Meyers, by the appointment of HUGH WILSON, Esq., of Southampton as President. The following named gentlemen were appointed Vice Presidents, M. Reed, W. S. Fluke, Reuben Smith, John Greenough, John C. Black, Wm. Mason, Geo. W. Horn, Augustus Hildebrant, David Brallier, P. F. Lehman, Geo. Rhoads, Jacob Adams, Geo. Vonstine, John Burket, James Sill, S. McFeeters, Christ. Myers, Daniel Smouse, Henry W. Reed, Wm. Adams, John Cavender, Samuel Beckley, Lewis Howsare, Wm. M. Pearson, Henry Fluke, Josiah Ritchey, Caselton Ake, with the following gentlemen as Secretaries: Dr. W. Van Ormer, Henry Boor, John Feaster and Emory Berkstresser.

On motion, Hon. A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, was called upon to address the meeting. Gen. Coffroth responded to the call, in a most able and effective address, which was frequently interrupted with loud cheers.

Hon. F. M. Kimmell, of Chambersburg, was then loudly called for, and made his appearance in the midst of much enthusiasm. The Judge made a clear, calm and searching exposition of Radical doctrines and purposes and was listened to with profound attention.

Col. J. H. Filler was next called out, and received with bursts of applause. The Colonel made an eloquent and impressive address, putting his points with that peculiar forcibleness which distinguishes all his speeches.

O. E. Shannon, Esq., was then introduced. Mr. S. discussed the financial question with great ability, pointing out with great clearness and force, the blunders and rascality of the fiscal system which now curses the country.

The following resolutions were then read and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, By the Democracy of Bedford county, that the fiat of the people has gone forth that the Equality of the States must be restored, Equality of Taxation must be established and Equality of Representation must be granted, to all the people of the Union, and to this end, that the unconstitutional, fanatical and tyrannical legislation of the last Congress must be repealed.

Resolved, That the Congressional plan of reconstruction, as confessed by its framers, wholly outside the Constitution, is a revolutionary usurpation, and that the attempt by Congress to establish the practical supremacy of the negro race, is a most atrocious crime against the principles of republican government and the civilization of the age, and deserves the severe and indignant denunciation of every true American citizen.

Resolved, That the bitter fruits of legislation outside of the Constitution are seen in the practical disruption of the Union, the demoralization of the public conscience, the stagnation of all legitimate business, the depreciation of the public credit, the enormous and still increasing burdens of taxation and the grave apprehension of business men and statesmen that still greater calamities are impending over the country.

Resolved, That the so-called Reconstruction measures have been repudiated by the people at the ballot-box, and that the Congress which enacted them, is solemnly and emphatically called upon by the popular voice to repeal them.

Resolved, That the attempt of the Radical party to fasten the supremacy of the blacks upon eleven states of the Union, through the instrumentality of a military despotism, and to equalize the races politically throughout the remaining States, has received a merited and overwhelming rebuke in the verdict of the people at the recent elections.

Resolved, That we extend our hearty congratulations to our brethren of New York, New Jersey, Maryland and the West, for the signal victories they have achieved in behalf of the Constitution and the Union; and that we cordially invite all conservative men without regard to past political designations, to unite with us in an honest and earnest effort to emulate these noble examples to achieve the crowning victory in 1868, which will restore the Union, re-establish domestic tranquillity, and bring the people back to the paths of peace and prosperity.

On motion, the meeting adjourned. The Democratic Brass Band was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with several spirit-stirring airs. The meeting was a grand success, and will leave a marked impression upon the politics of the county.

No Chance for Grant as a Radical Candidate.

The New York Herald, which has been the most devoted advocate of the claims of General Grant as a Presidential candidate, has a very strong editorial on the "negro Conventions in the Southern States, and their effect on the North," in which it emphatically declares:

If General Grant accepts the Radical nomination upon such a platform as the Radicals now tread, he will be beaten, despite his national popularity and his masterly reticence. General Scott was defeated when similar but minor principles were involved, and President Pierce, with all his imbecility, then stepped into power.

The Herald sees what is in the future. Any candidate whom the Radicals may put up will be defeated. The people of this country are not prepared to turn the greatest nation in the world over to the wild rule of a set of barbarian negroes, just freed from slavery.

RIP-ROARIN' RALLY OF THE RIPPED-UP RADS!

Grand and Glorious Gathering of the Ticket-holders in the Presidential Grab-bag!

A Child's History of the War, A Declaration in favor of Negro Suffrage, and a Pellucid Illumination of the Great Political Issues Involved in the Administration of the Bedford County Poor House.

The disconsolate and dilapidated remnants of the ripped-up Rads in this county, had a gathering at the Court House, on Tuesday night last. The Court room was about half filled, and at least fifty per cent of the assemblage were Democrats. The hour for organization arrived and passed, and after some time, J. H. Longnecker, Esq., Chairman of the Radical County Committee, announced the President and other officers of the meeting. Mr. J. R. Durborrow, of the Inquirer, then took the floor. He said that though he had for a long time been prominently identified with the politics of Bedford county, this was the first time he had had the honor of appearing in public as a regul*ah* speak*ah*. He then explained how it came that the meeting was so immensely small, and, doubtless, satisfied himself entirely as to the reason of "this thusness." He, also, referred to the recent Democratic victories. Besides, he gave a youth's history of the war, which was evidently very grateful to the weak stomachs of those of the brethren who have been nauseated with Radical disunionism. Moreover, he came out, flat and fair for Negro Suffrage and declared that the Republican party were pledged to stand by it. [Here Esq. Metzger was heard to ejaculate, "If that's the doctrine of the party, I'll be —— if I'll go with them any further]. Mr. Points followed, saying that he had suddenly waked up to the discovery that the Democrats had carried everything before them. Mr. Cessna then took the stand, and bellowed for about thirty minutes about "Copperheads" and "Whisky," and "Whisky" and "Copperheads," "hands red with blood," "rebels," "traitors," "blood-hounds," etc., and wound up by a most luminous exposition of the great political issues involved in the administration of the affairs of the Bedford county Poor House. John sneaked around questions of national politics, like a hungry cat around a hot skillet. But much as he desired to ventilate his opinions on those questions, he dared not touch them, but taking counsel of his fears, contented himself by assailing the absent ex-District Attorney, which was about as brave as running away from Bedford, when the rebel cavalry, once upon a time, were supposed to be approaching the devoted town. If John persists in this kind of warfare, somebody will be hurt, sure. Mr. Cessna was followed by Mr. F. Holsinger, of Woodberry, who said that the negroes of the South are more intelligent than the whites, and the reason that the white people are afraid of them (the negroes) is, that the negroes are their superiors! At this juncture there was a sudden skedaddling of the faithful, and Mr. Holsinger was left to discourse to "a beggarly account of empty benches." The meeting was then compelled to adjourn, for want of numbers, and the chairman and speakers slowly and solemnly retired from the scene.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD—ALL RAIL TO THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS.

Not even this country of great achievments, has ever before undertaken any industrial enterprise so important as the building of a railway to the Pacific ocean. Less than twenty years ago, Col. Benton advocated in Congress a railroad, "where practicable," across the country from the Mississippi to the Pacific coast; but his moderate proposal was considered to be far in advance even of this progressive age. And yet to-day, more than one-third of this vast work has been finished. The Union Pacific Railroad Company, organized in 1863, began to build in 1864, had only fairly got to work in 1865, and in October, 1867, have completed five hundred miles of road which has been pronounced by Government Commissioners first-class in construction and equipment. This Company is constructing the eastern end of the line, beginning at Omaha, Nebraska; while the Central Pacific Company is building the western end, beginning at Sacramento, California.

The peculiar and impressive features of the Pacific Railroad, are: 1st, Its importance as a national enterprise; 2d, The especial privileges granted to it by the Government; and 3d, The unusual care taken by Government enactments for the safety of investments in its securities.

The national importance of a railroad to the Pacific can hardly be overestimated. The Government is spending millions of dollars annually in transporting men and material to its frontier posts; with a railroad in operation, this expense will be reduced at least three-fourths. The gold and silver mines of the Western States and Territories yield annually about one hundred million dollars; with the increased facilities for emigration, and for transporting the requisite machinery for the thorough development of the mining region which a railroad will afford, this production will be at least doubled. The public lands in Nebraska, and in the Territories west of that State, have been comparatively worthless, because they were inaccessible, and, consequently, unproductive; the Union Pacific Railroad opens all the great valley of the River Platte and vast regions beyond to the occupancy of thrifty emigrants, and has already established such a succession of thriving towns as will bring all land in the vicinity of the Railroad into active demand. In case of foreign war or domestic revolution, the existence of a railway line, by which troops could be conveyed from the Atlantic to the Pacific, or vice versa, in a week, would be of incalculable value; while under any circumstances of internal trouble, necessitating a repetition in kind of the Utah expedition, the saving to the Government by means of this road, would be enough to construct the entire line. Gen. Sherman has said that "The Government could afford to build the whole road rather than be without it," and there are abundant reasons for pronouncing this opinion a sound one.

So great are the manifest national advantages to be derived from a Pacific Railroad, that the two powerful companies authorized to build it received very extraordinary grants from Congress. Donations of land were made to the companies to the amount of 12,800 acres per mile; and then United States bonds, to an average amount of about $30,000 per mile, were advanced to the Companies, which have the privilege of paying a large part, if not all, of this indebtedness to the Government, by the transportation of mails and war and other national material. No other industrial enterprise ever received so liberal aid from the Government as this.

Having made such special grants as indicated its entire confidence in the full success of the undertaking, the Government took unusual care that those who joined with it in assisting the Union Pacific Railroad Company should be amply secured against any probability of loss or failure. The company was authorized to issue its own bonds to an amount equal to the advances of the Government, and these bonds constitute the first mortgage upon the road, the claim of the Government being made a second lien. The Government appoints five Directors, who shall look carefully after the management of the road, and also three commissioners, whose duty it is to thoroughly inspect each section of twenty miles, before the bonds can be issued upon that section. Thus the bonds represent, not a projected enterprise, which may be completed, but a finished and equipped railroad, earning very largely in excess of its expenses, and with a future which cannot fail of being eminently profitable.

The future business of the only railroad connecting the Atlantic and Pacific states must be something marvelous, and we venture the prediction that no single track will long accommodate the endless succession of trains that will crowd its entire line. Western Europe is waiting for it, as the shortest route to Eastern Asia; and how many anxious hearts in the old home states are longing for it, to join hands with friends and relatives, without the cost and risk of a long, dreary and dangerous voyage in crowded steamers across two oceans.

But if the business of the completed line is to be something marvelous, the business on the sections already finished is not less satisfactory. The earnings on three hundred and twenty-five miles for a single quarter this season are officially reported at one million dollars, and as the road goes further towards the great mining regions, this sum must be increased.

Every reader of this sheet is interested in the rapid prosecution of this work. Every new agricultural or manufacturing community established by the opening of this road, will add to the national wealth and aid in paying the public debt. Every acre of land hitherto unimproved, which shall not be cultivated, increases the store of food for our own population or for export. Every additional ton of gold or silver that is mined puts money in the public purse. The road will be the great agent in the development of the American continent, and its completion in 1870 will benefit an entire population. With such a future before it as the finished line is certain to have, and with so many guarantees for the protection of the interests of those who invest in it, we cannot but think that its bonds constitute one of the best investments now before the American people. Their special advantages are set forth elsewhere, and the character of the financial officers of the Company is sufficient guarantee that those advantages are not exaggerated in the slightest degree.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY.

One of the West India Islands Submerged and Ten Thousand Persons Drowned. &c. &c. &c.

HAVANA, Nov. 14.—Tontolo [probably Tortola], one of the British West Indies, has been submerged, and ten thousand persons drowned.

Advices from Porto Rico to the 7th instant have been received. A terrible hurricane had visited the southern portion of the Island, destroying all the crops.

Two hundred lives were lost and four thousand families are destitute. Provisions were to be landed duty free for two months.

Subscriptions had been opened in Havana for the relief of the sufferers at St. Thomas.

The Liverpool steamer which was sunk during the hurricane carried down $5,000,000 in spice and merchandise. The loss of the Steamship Company, at St. Thomas, will amount to $12,000,000.

Some five hundred bodies remaining unburied have been burnt on the island.

DESCRIPTION OF TORTOLA.

Tortola, which a dispatch by the Cuba cable announces has been submerged, with a loss of ten thousand persons, is one of the Virgin islands, West Indies, belonging to Great Britain, situated between Virgin Gorda and St. Johns. The length of the island is twelve miles and its breadth four miles. It consists mostly of a range of hills rising to 1,600 feet in elevation and in its north part encircling a harbor, on the west of which is the town of Tortola. The island is very unhealthy to Europeans. Tortola has its governor, council and legislative assembly. It became a British possession in 1666.

Dull Times in New York.

There is much complaint in New York of dull times among the merchants. The correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes:

Nine out of every ten of them will tell you they are not making money enough to pay clerk hire or store rent, while the tenth will declare that they can only effect sales by submitting to enormous sacrifices. The fact is, buyers and sellers alike seem disposed to hold off for a while to see what course congressional legislation is going to take on the financial question, and also to see what is to come of the impeachment talk. The future is considered uncertain, and until the fog clears up, these complaints of dullness are likely to prevail.

—A Dublin barber has invented a machine for cutting hair. It is a terrible affair, with revolving knives.

—Another revolution has broken out in Hayti against Salnave.

Two Kinds of Money for two Kinds of Men.

This is the financial plank in the Radical platform—"two kinds of money for two kinds of men." National bank rags for the people, and national gold coin for the rich bondholders.—Who goes with the party that is for making the rich richer and the poor poorer?

—The Radical Philadelphia Post says: "We must set up the Test Oath in the Southern Confederacy, as Gesler set up his cap for the Swiss, and those who cannot take it must not pass it." To which the Age pertinently replies: "Is the Post aware what became of Gesler's experiment? If not, history will Tell him!"

—Major Butts, formerly a Bureau agent, who was mobbed by negroes at King William Court House, Virginia, recently, was obnoxious to the darkies only because he is not a Radical. Gen. Schofield has taken measures to arrest the ringleaders.

—The number of immigrants who have arrived at New York from January 4th to November 13th, 1867, has been 220,475, as compared with 212,752 during the same period of 1866.

—A poor vagabond in England was recently sentenced to three months' imprisonment, with hard labor, for the crime of sleeping in a gentleman's barn.

—An Illinois correspondent of the Lancaster Express, says, this has been the most profitable season enjoyed by the western farmers for many years.

—One of the Washington newspapers has an obituary notice of Thad. Stevens in type, several columns in length.

—Russia is reported to have decreased its army by about 100,000 men during the past year. It still has an effective force of about half a million.

—It is rumored that General M'Clellan will be tendered the War Portfolio.

—A London paper comments on the proceedings of a recent spiritualist meeting in that city, under the head of "Modern Devil Worship."

—A printer in Texas, whose first son happened to be a very short little fellow, named him Brevier Fullfaced Jones.

—Of one hundred and twelve members drawn for the jury in a county in Louisiana, but twenty five are white men.

—The Sultan of Turkey is in a state of pitiable poverty. He has had only $45, 000,000 in gold, for his annual personal expenditures.

MORE LIGHT.—Our appeals as politicians must be to the intelligence of the people. One convert who renews himself into his new faith, is worth a dozen made by mercenary means, or by appeals to passion or prejudice. Hence Democratic newspapers should be more extensively circulated. Let Republicans but read both sides, and they will be Democrats soon enough. The people want more light. Will our Democratic politicians throughout the country heed the Macedonian cry, and come forward to help us? More light! Who would not contribute his mite to furnish that single ray of intelligence which may be instrumental in saving a political sinner? Democrats, take counsel together, and see whether you can't do something to increase the circulation of your newspaper organs.

Owing to the skilful manner in which the physicians made the amputation, the Captain is doing well and hopes soon to be himself again, minus the poor, faithful old hand which he was compelled to surrender.

OUR young friend and former fellow townsman, J. Harry Hutton, paid us a flying visit last week, looking well and hearty. Harry says he feels about as able to sell cheap Boots and Shoes as ever, and still has time to attend to his friends. He has returned to Philadelphia to meet those of his Bedford county friends that have not been in yet, for their fall stock, and will be happy to show them through, and sell them cheap goods. To those of our merchants, in this county, who have been through the establishment, we need not commend him. To those who have not, we would say, give the "Boy" a call, and see him and ascertain whether all he says can be substantiated. ### Kansas Election.

The Leavenworth (Kansas) Conservative contradicts emphatically the reports of the Republican papers of that State, which stated that the Legislature would be largely Republican.—It says the counties as far as heard from show the election of 28 Democrats, 27 Radicals and 2 independant candidates. Besides this (it continues), in the three Senatorial vacancies the Democrats have carried all of them, and have a majority in the State on an average of the county tickets. The large Democratic majorities in Atchison, Doniphan, Leavenworth, Wyandotte, Jefferson, and Ellsworth counties alone will equal the majorities in all the Republican counties of the State. Kansas will elect next year a Democratic member of Congress, Governor, State ticket, and three Presidential Electors—mark it. The Democratic party has never had an organization before since Kansas became a State, and the present is very imperfect. Next year there will be a thorough organization in every county, and the Democracy will sweep the State, from the Missouri to the plains.

OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD,
Running West From Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT, ARE NOW COMPLETED.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company have built a longer line of railroad in the last eighteen months than was ever built by any other company in the same time, and they will continue the work with the same energy until it is completed. The Western Division is being pushed rapidly eastward from Sacramento by the Central Pacific Company of California, and it is expected that to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870. More than one-third of the work has already been done, more than one-third of the whole line is now in running order, and more laborers are now employed upon it than ever before. More than FORTY MILLION DOLLARS IN MONEY have already been expended by the two powerful companies that have undertaken the enterprise, and there is no lack of funds for its most vigorous prosecution. When the United States Government found it necessary to secure the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad, to develop and protect its own interests, it gave the Companies authorized to build it such ample aid as should render its speedy complotion beyond a doubt. The available means of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, derived from the Government and its own stockholders, may be briefly summed up as follows:

1.—UNITED STATES BONDS

Having thirty years to run and bearing six per cent. currency interest at the rate of $16,000 per mile for 517 miles on the Plains; then at the rate of $48,000 per mile for 150 miles through the Rocky Mountains; thence at the rate of $32,000 per mile for the remaining distance, for which the United States takes a second lien as security. The interest on these bonds is paid by the United States government, which also pays the company one-half the amount of its bills in money for transporting its freight, troops, mails, &c. The remaining half of these bills is placed to the company's credit, and forms a sinking fund which may finally discharge the whole amount of this lien. The claims against the government since April of the current year amount to four and one-half times this interest.

2.—FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.

By its charter the Company is permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to the same amount as the bonds issued by the government, and no more, and only as the road progresses. The Trustees for the bondholders are the Hon. E. D. Morgan, U. S. Senator from New York, and the Hon. Oakes Ames, Member of the U. S. House of Representatives, who are responsible for the delivery of these bonds to the Company in strict accordance with the terms of the law.

3.—THE LAND GRANT.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company has a land grant or absolute donation from the government of 12,800 acres to the mile on the line of the road, which will not be worth less than $1.50 per acre at the lowest valuation.

4.—THE CAPITAL STOCK.

The authorized capital of the Union Pacific Railroad Company is $100,000,000, of which over $5,000,000,000 have been paid on the work already done.

THE MEANS SUFFICIENT TO BUILD THE ROAD.

Contracts for the entire work of the building 914 miles of first-class railroad west from Omaha, comprising much of the most difficult mountain work, and embracing every expenses except surveying, have been made with responsible parties (who have already finished over 500 miles), at the average rate of sixty-eight thousand and fifty-eight dollars ($68,058) per mile. This price includes all necessary shops for construction and repairs of cars, depots, stations and all other incidental buildings, and also locomotives, passenger, baggage, and freight cars, and other requisite rolling stock, to an amount that shall not be less than $50,000 per mile. Allowing the cost of the remaining one hundred and eighty-six of the eleven hundred miles assumed to be built by the Pacific Company to be $90,000 per mile.

THE TOTAL COST OF ELEVEN HUNDRED MILES WILL BE AS FOLLOWS:

|---|---|
| 914 miles, at $68,058 | $62,205,012 |
| 186 miles at $90,000 | 16,740,000 |
| Add discounts on bonds, surveys, &c. | 4,500,000 |
| Amount | $83,415,012 |

As the U. S. Bonds are equal to money, and the Company's own First Mortgage Bonds have a ready market, we have as the

AVAILABLE CASH RESOURCES FOR BUILDING ELEVEN HUNDRED MILES:

|---|---|
| U. S Bonds | $29,328,000 |
| First Mortgage Bonds | 29,328,000 |
| Capital stock paid in on the work now done | 5,369,750 |
| Land Grant, 14,080,000 acres, at $1,50 per acre | 21,120,000 |
| Total | $85,145,750 |

The company have ample facilities for supplying any deficiency that may arise in means for construction. This may be done wholly or in part by additional subscriptions to capital stock.

Active inquiry has already been made for a portion of these lands, and arrangements are now proposed to offer a part of them for sale. While their whole value will not be available for some years to come, they will remain a very important source of revenue to the Company. The lands of the Illinois Central Railroad Company are selling at from $6 to $12 per acre, and other land-grant companies in the West are receiving equal prices for similar properties.

FUTURE BUSINESS.

The most skeptical have never expressed a doubt that when the Union Pacific Railroad is finished the immense business that must flow over it, as the only railroad connecting the two grand divisions of the North American continent, will be one of the wonders of railway transportation; and as it will have no competitor it can always charge renumerated rates.

EARNINGS FROM WAY BUSINESS.

During the quarter ending July 31, an average of 325 miles of the Union Pacific Railroad was in operation. The Superintendent's Report shows the following result:

EARNINGS.

|---|---|
| Passengers, Freight, Telegraph and Mails | $723,755 54 |
| Transportation of Contractor's Materials and Men | 479,283 41 |
| Total | $1,203,038 41 |

EXPENSES.

|---|---|
| Fuel, Repairs, Offices, Conductors, Trains, &c. | $395,530 92 |
| NET EARNINGS to balance | 807,508 93 |
| Total | $1,203,038 95 |

The net operating expenses on the commercial business for the quarter were $237,966 50. The account for the COMMERCIAL BUSINESS stands as follows:

|---|---|
| Earnings for May, June and July | $723,755 54 |
| Expenses " " " | 237,966 50 |
| Net Profit | $485,789 04 |

The amount of Bonds the Company can issue on 325 miles, at $16,000 per mile, is $5,200,000. Interest in gold, three months, at 6 per cent., on this sum, is $78,000; add 40 per cent. premium, to correspond with currency earnings, is $109,200—showing that the net earnings for this quarter were more than four times the interest on the First Mortgage Bonds on this length of road.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

whose principal is so amply provided for, and whose interest is so thoroughly secured, must be classed among the safest investments. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD, and are offered for the present at NINETY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, and accrued interest at Six Per Cent. in Currency from July 1.

Many parties are taking advantage of the present high prices of Government stocks to exchange for these Bonds, which are over FIFTEEN PER CENT. CHEAPER, and, at the current rate of premium on gold pay

OVER NINE PER CENT. INTEREST.

Subscriptions will be received in Bedford by RUPP AND SHANNON, and in New York at the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, and by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, No. 7 Nassau street, CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, No. 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 33 Wall street, and by the Company's advertised Agents throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained on application. Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the bonds will be sent free of charge by return express.

ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.
The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON. Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.

Publications.

1867.—"THE WORLD."—1867.
The attention of the public is invited to the claims of "The World" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merits consists in its character as an enterprising and trustworthy newspaper.
The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions than even any eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments, which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD accepts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance. In politics, THE WORLD will continue to be the bold advocate of a Liberal, Progressive Democracy. The unflinching champion of Freedom, Justice, Order and Constitutional Rights. The inspiration of its politics is Freedom restrained by Justice; or, to speak more strictly, Freedom pure and simple, in the largest collective measure; the office of justice being merely to protect freedom from encroachments; Freedom of the individual citizen in his rights of thought, speech, religion and locomotion; in his Right to choose his own food and drink, in spite of meddlesome temperance laws; in his Right to buy and sell in all markets, domestic and foreign, in spite of unjust protective tariffs; in his Right to representation in the legislative bodies which tax him, in spite of unconstitutional exclusions; Freedom of collective citizens to assemble for discussion of grievances; Freedom in every section of the country from the arrogant and unconstitutional domination of other sections; this large and comprehensive idea of Freedom sums up the politics of THE WORLD, which will never be found wanting to this capital interest of the country and of the human race.
In its accurate Commercial Intelligence and careful, reliable market reports, THE WORLD will continue to maintain its present high reputation. A paper published in the commercial metropolis is naturally looked to for authentic information relating to trade, commerce and finance; and this being a feature in which the THE WORLD prides itself, it boldly challenges comparison with every journal in the metropolis.
EDITIONS.
The WEEKLY WORLD, a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, is now printed throughout in large type, and has the largest circulation of any weekly journal published, save one. Its extraordinary success since its union with the New York ARGUS has justified the most liberal expenditures, which will make it unrivalled in interest and value to farmers. Published Wednesday.
1. Its Market Reports embrace the New York, Albany, Brighton and Cambridge Live Stock Markets; the New York Country Produce and General Produce Markets; special and valuable Hop Intelligence; a department of Agricultural Reading; all together composing an unrivalled handbook of current information for the Farmer, Live Stock or Produce Dealer, Country Merchant, &c.
2. A page or more reserved for entertaining Fireside Reading for the Family circle, embracing the freshest and best Stories, Poetry, Religious Reading, etc., and a page for the Discussion of all Prominent Topics of general interest, political agricultural, financial, literary, etc.

In every postoffice district there should be found some active, public spirited Democrat, who will confer a benefit upon us, his neighbors, and the cause, by counseling with his Democratic friends and making a determined effort to form as large a club as possible for the WEEKLY WORLD.
The SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD is a large quarto sheet, same size as Daily, which, by omitting a great mass of city advertisements from the Daily, contains all its news, correspondence, editorials, commercial and market news cattle market and provision reports, and a fresh and entertaining miscellany of literature.
